

A Day Skiing Mount Bachelor

OverView

Just 22 miles west of Bend, Mount Bachelor is a strato-volcano that you can literally ski down all 360 degrees of the mountain. Known for its dry snow, large snowpack and long ski season, Mount Bachelor frequently ranks in the top-10 ski areas in North America. With chalet-style accommodations and excellent apres-ski activities for all walks of life, you can achieve the ski vacation of your dreams.

1. Start Your Day: The Row

A hidden gem on the way to Mt. Bachelor, actually at the Tetherow golf resort. Excellent food and drinks and a beautiful view greet you before your time to head up to the mountains.

2. Arrive at the mountain

You truly can ski all morning here and at whatever your skill level, be ready to give your legs some rest. We can provide and arrange with you the guidance on how to best suit the arrival, location, tickets, and trails to best suit your needs.

3. Mid Day Eats: Pine Marten Lodge

Pine Marten Lodge is perched at the top of the Pine Marten Chair. The high-speed lift can take you to your lunch destination where you can perch yourself and enjoy restaurant luxury dining and soak in the view of the Central Oregon Cascades.
